Back-End Developer

About me

My passion for programming started back in middle school. It all began with simple curiosity — I wanted to understand how browser games work. That curiosity quickly turned into a career path.

Over the years, I've contributed to a wide range of freelance projects, including browser games, e-commerce platforms, social networks, mobile apps, classifieds, niche forums, and various web services. Each project taught me something new and helped me grow as a developer.

I'm a fast learner, persistent, and comfortable working both independently and as part of a team. I'm not afraid of challenging tasks — in fact, they drive me to improve and find creative solutions.
