IT specialist

About me

I am a young professional with a strong passion for IT and technology, driven by continuous growth and a desire to bring value to any team I am part of. I am highly motivated, a fast learner, and easily adapt to new work environments. My open communication style, analytical thinking, and ability to perform well under pressure allow me to find effective solutions in challenging situations.

Throughout my professional experience, I have developed valuable skills in sales, where I actively contributed to closing contracts, expanding the client portfolio, and strengthening customer relationships. I consistently achieved and exceeded sales targets, demonstrating perseverance, professionalism, and strong negotiation skills. Additionally, I took part in coordinating small teams, where I enhanced my leadership and organizational abilities, contributing to the successful delivery of time-sensitive projects.

In the IT/Tech field, I am familiar with technical concepts, digital platforms, and collaborative work tools. I quickly grasp new technologies and have a keen interest in innovation and modern digital solutions. I can efficiently adapt to working with new applications and software, even without prior hands-on experience.

In the Office/Administrative field, I have developed strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and the ability to effectively prioritize tasks. I am capable of drafting clear documents, handling correspondence, scheduling activities, and supporting a team or manager by providing reliable administrative assistance.

From a Management perspective, I have already demonstrated leadership, coordination, and decision-making capabilities. I am results-oriented and able to lead and motivate teams effectively, even in high-pressure environments. I enjoy taking responsibility, setting goals, and ensuring that objectives are met through efficient planning and communication.

My key competencies include:

- Effective verbal and written communication
- Teamwork and active collaboration
- Ability to work under pressure and meet deadlines
- Analytical thinking and problem-solving
- Adaptability and fast learning
- Leadership and ownership of responsibilities

I am eager to be part of a professional team where I can grow, learn from those around me, and contribute to the development of projects through serious work, initiative, and a strong desire for progress.
