Front-End Developer

About me

I am a programming teacher, dedicated to helping children discover the world of technology by learning Python, HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and React. My passion for programming drives me to continuously improve my skills, explore modern frameworks, and stay updated with the latest industry trends. I strongly aspire to transition into a professional developer role, where I can apply both my technical expertise and my ability to explain complex concepts in a clear, structured way. I am highly motivated, detail-oriented, and committed to building a long-term career in software development.
